A Wild Man Like an Ape. Crugar Dam, N. J., Correspondence Phitadelphia News: Two sons of Archi-bald Tyson, a farmer, returned from a hunt last evening, leading by a rope a frightful spectacle of humanity in the shape of a wild man. Both of the Tyson boys are full grown, and tell the follow-ing story of the capture: About noon, when they were climbing the Ramapo mountain on the north side, they heard a shrill voice howling as if in agony. Approaching the spot where the voice came from they encountered what ap-one of the boys, Sileman, raised his gun to fire at the subject, but was stopped by his brother. Then they advanced closer and discovered that the object was a man. Scarcely a whole article of clothing covered his body. His hair and beard were long, matted and partly gray. They spoke to him, and he jumped towards them in a threatening manner. Both dropped their guns and grappled with him. After a terrible strength he was him. After a terrible struggle he was overpowered and bound. He uttered a few unintelligible words and quietly allowed them to do as they pleased with

After searching in vain for a hut or a cave they led him home, where he was exhibited to the neighbors. He appeared to understand the German language, and whenever a woman approached would run and try to escape. It is thought that he must have escaped from some insane asylum and wandered wild in the

When a piece of raw meat was offered him he grabbed it and ate it ravenously. Mr. Tyson locked him up in a barn, and is waiting for some relative to claim

The Dominion government has determined to establish a national park at some point on the Canadian Paeific railway-probably in the Bow River district.

A question likely soon to come to the fore is the practicability of tunneling between England and Ireland. At one point the distance is under twenty-two

A congress of skat players ("skat" is a game of cards which has supplanted all other scientific card games in Germany) will be held at Altenburg, from August 14 to August 18 next.

It is claimed that a lady in Oshkosh has coffin for a bedstead, and every night lies down to rest in it with as much serenity as those who retire in the conventional manner.

CONSTIPATION

"My attention, after suffering with constipation for two or three years, was called to Simmons Liver Regulator, and naving tried almost everything else concluded to try it. I first toos a wine-glassful and afterwards reduced the dose to a tenspoonful (as per directions) after each meal. I found that it had done me so much good that I continued it until I took two bottles; since then I have not experienced any difficulty. I keep it in my house and would not be without it, but have no use for it, having cured me."—GEO. W. SIMS, Assistant Clerk Superfor Court, Bibb Co., Ga.

"Having led a sedentary life for a number of years my bowels became very irregular and my habit constipated. By the advice of friends I was induced to resort to Simmons Liver Regulator and I now enjoy better health than I have known for years."—GEO. W. ECDERT, Water
